105. 2237_interviewfolder_n.d._p1

AGNES BLUST

Resident of 101 Richardson Street
New Brunswick, N.J.

On Thursday evening, September 14, 1922 took a walk with Mrs. Harkins along Richardson Street to Easton Avenue and out towards De Russeys Lane as far as entrance to Buccleugh Park nearest the Lane. Mrs. Mills, whom she knew by sight, passed her near this entrance going towards De Russeys Lane about 10 minutes of eight and smiled at Mrs. Harkins. Mrs. Mills was walking fast and carrying a small parcel about the size of "those letters". About ten minutes later Mr. Hall passed Mrs. Blust also walking fast and going towards De Russeys Lane.

105.2237 p 2

AGNES BLUST

August 18, 1926

Resident of 101 Richardson Street,
New Brunswick.

TESTIFIED (pages 555, et seq.):

Lived in same place on September 14, 1922. (555)

Knew Mrs. Mills (555)

Took a walk with Mrs. Harkins Thursday evening, September 14, 1922 along Richardson Street to Easton Avenue and out Easton Avenue towards De Russeys Lane. (555)

In walking reached last entrance to Buccleugh Park towards De Russeys Lane (556).

Mrs. Mills passed near this entrance (556).

Only knew Mrs. Mills, who smiled at Mrs. Harkins, by sight (557).

Mrs. Mills passed about ten minutes of eight going towards De Russeys Lane (557).

About ten minutes later Mr. Hall passing going very fast towards De Russeys Lane. It was eight o'clock by the Vocational School clock (558).

CROSSEXAMINATION:

Mrs. Mills was walking quite fast (559).

She had a small parcel in her hand about the size of "those letters" (560).

REDIRECT:

The package was under Mrs. Mill's arm (561).